

Rhybudd

Warning

LLWYBR CERDDED Y RHAADR EWYNNOL – GWYBODAETH AM GAU RHAN O'R LLWYBR

O ganlyniad i Weithgareddau Cynaeafu, bu'n rhaid cau rhan o lwybr cerdded Y Rhaedr Ewynnol.

Mae'n dal yn bosibl mynd at olygfan y rhaedr fel arfer. Yn ystod y gwaith coedwigo, ewch yn ôl i faes parcio Ty'n Llwyn drwy ddilyn yr un ffordd allan ac yn ôl, fel y dangosir ar y map. Bydd yr hawl dramwy gyhoeddus sy'n dilyn yr afon yn ôl i gyfeiriad Betws-y-Coed hefyd yn parhau i fod yn agored.

Os gwelwch yn dda ufuddhewch i'r holl arwyddion diogelwch a pheidiwch â mynd heibio unrhyw rubanau sy'n cau llwybrau. Maent yno ar gyfer eich diogelwch chi a diogelwch y contractwyr Cynaeafu.

Ymddiheurwn am unrhyw anghyfleuster a achoswyd.

SWALLOW FALLS WALKING TRAIL – CLOSURE INFORMATION

Due to Harvesting operations, a section of the Swallow Falls walking trail has had to be closed.

The waterfall viewpoint can still be accessed as normal. For the duration of the forest operations, please return to Ty'n Llwyn car park by taking the same route out and back, as indicated on the map. The PRow that follows the river back towards Betws-y-Coed will also remain open.

Please adhere to all safety signage and do not cross any taped closures. They are there for your safety and the safety of the Harvesting contractors.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

0300 065 3000

Ffon / Tel

SWALLOW FALLS TRAIL CLOSURE INFORMATION

Ty'n Llwyn Car Park

Blue line: Section of Swallow Falls trail that will remain open.

RED LINE: PATH CLOSED DUE TO HAVESTING OPERATIONS

CLOSED

CLOSED

Blue dotted line: PRow remains open

Coed Tŷ-hyll

Cae Hydgyll

Coed Penraig

Penraig Isaf

Ait Isaf

Diosgydd Isaf

Coed Cae Huddyl

Afon Llugwy

A5

