Latest Funding and Sector News....

The Response for Nature

In 2013, the State of Nature report found that 60% of UK species studied had declined in recent decades, and more than 1 in 10 could disappear from our shores altogether. That left the question: 'what needs to be done to improve the fate of nature in the UK? The 'Response for Nature' reports, launched in October 2015, are the answer. Many of the UK's conservation organisations have joined forces to outline the key actions needed in Wales, England, Northern Ireland and Scotland as building blocks for an effective plan for nature recovery. Read the report at: <http://goo.gl/glip6m>

Final report of Review of Designated Landscapes in Wales published

A wide-ranging review about the future of Wales's national parks and Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONBs) has been published. Chaired by Professor Terry Marsden, Director of the Sustainable Places Research Institute at Cardiff University, the review makes 69 recommendations around purposes, principles, vision, governance models, planning, and funding. A Future Landscapes Working Group will be led by Lord Dafydd Elis-Thomas AM to explore these recommendations and the case for reform, with findings to be reported next year. More details from: <http://goo.gl/w0xqvr>

Big Lottery Fund seeks views on Rural Programme

The Big Lottery Fund is currently inviting views to help shape a new programme to support rural communities in Wales. It is likely that the programme will support social enterprises, cooperatives, mutuals, community interest companies and local authorities alongside voluntary and community groups. The programme is likely to open in summer 2016 with an overall budget of £13.5 million for nine rural areas. Views can be submitted via a short online survey at: <https://goo.gl/HfuUOo>

Support to Find European Partners for Projects or Cooperation

WCVA is a member of the European Network of National Civil Society Organizations (ENNA), a network of national NGO networks from EU, Norway and Turkey, which has created the NGO Partnership e-database that helps NGOs to find partners around Europe either for a project partnership or general international cooperation. Organisations can create an online profile and search for partners at: <http://goo.gl/Gz7JtK>

Consultation on 'The Measures that Matter'

The Welsh Government is currently consulting on a proposed new set of 40 national well-being indicators for Wales, which are intended to measure progress towards achieving the 7 well-being goals of the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act. The consultation closes on 11 January 2016. More details from: <http://goo.gl/opJKyI>

New Research on Charities and Social Investment

The Institute for Voluntary Action Research (IVAR) has initiated new research on the experience of small and medium-sized charities with social investment. Researchers are interested in their views and experiences of social investment (understood as investment that provides a social as well as a financial return) rather than grants or contracts. The research is being funded by IVAR, The Barrow Cadbury Trust and Access – The Foundation for Social Investment and has the support of the Charity Commission. ### Clothworkers' Foundation

The Clothworkers' Foundation was set up by The Clothworkers' Company in 1977. It is the independent charitable arm for the Company's charitable work. Since its establishment, the Trust has awarded grants totalling £100m. The Foundation aims to improve the lives of people and communities, particularly those that face disadvantage. Capital grants are awarded to charities which work in one of the specific programme areas and have an annual income of less than £15m. There are two funding streams, each with a cap on organisational income. The average grant amount is £7,000 - £25,000 and applications are accepted year round. An annual conservation fellowship and bursaries for qualified conservators are available to attend conferences and training events. The Foundation works directly with applicants. Emailed applications are no longer accepted. More details from: <http://goo.gl/FUH3tP>

Coalfields Regeneration Trust

The Coalfields Regeneration Trust has been actively working in Wales since 1999, investing more than £16 million in community regeneration. Development officers work with the community to tackle the issues that most affect the prosperity, resilience and opportunities available. The Trust has established strong relationships with Government, local authorities, Community First Partnerships and a range of third sector organisations, networks and support services. The Coalfields Community Grants Programme in Wales can award grants from £500 up to £7,000. for projects that can be completed within 12 months and can identify positive measurable outcomes for people. Projects will need to meet one or more of 8 themes to be eligible for support from the scheme. Note! Competition for funding in Wales is high. More details from: <http://goo.gl/j0Ruct>

Community Generation Fund

This is a national fund created to provide a catalyst for the widespread development of community-owned renewable energy infrastructure. The Fund aims to provide access to capital at project stages or scales where funding is needed most, but is not readily available. Please note that the Fund is designed to supplement rather than replace traditional sources of funding. It is not a grant or "low/nil cost" scheme. The Fund will consider project sizes from 25kWp capacity upwards, subject to assessment of technical viability, financial viability and social impact. The level of project typically is likely to involve total feasibility / pre-planning costs of £20,000 - £150,000 maximum (depending on technology and scale) and construction costs of £250,000 - £2,000,000 maximum. Currently the Fund is focused on supporting communities falling within the top 50% of the latest available Indices of Multiple Deprivation, with a particular desire to support those falling within the top 20% most deprived locations. More details from: <http://digbig.com/5bftsj>

Garfield Weston Foundation

The Foundation is a large UK based general grant-giving charity; their one-off grant awards totalled over £58 million in the last year. Trustees are especially keen to see applications for core and project costs from charities delivering services directly to beneficiaries: especially in the welfare, youth and community fields, and also in regions of economic disadvantage. There are no set grant amount parameters. More details from: <http://goo.gl/3RrKuu>

Grimple's Green Grants Scheme

Grimple's Green Grants was launched in August 2010 by the Green Insurance Company to encourage 'green behaviour'. The grant scheme has awarded over £50,000 to environmental community groups and affiliation with environmentally aware charities has raised over £250,000 for the RSPB, Marine Conservation Society and Royal Zoological Society. Apply for monthly Green Grants online by filling in the application form or using the Facebook page. Successful projects must be completed or occur within 12 months of receiving funding. More details from: <http://goo.gl/NoYrO1>

HDH Wills 1965 Charitable Trust

The HDH Wills 1965 Charitable Trust offers support to registered charities that are concerned with the preservation of wildlife and the environment. The Trust has two main funds: the General Fund: (£100 - £1,000) which supports general charitable activities across a range of issues and the Martin Wills Fund: (£2,000 and £25,000) which supports activities pertaining to environmental and wildlife issues. The General Fund seeks to support smaller charities which may benefit more from support. Exceptionally grants of £50,000 have been made. Grants may be made towards revenue, capital or project expenditure. Grants are made on a rolling basis and so there are no deadlines for applications. More details from: <http://goo.gl/jttb35>

Idlewild Trust

The Trust awards grants to registered charities concerned with the encouragement of excellence in the performing and fine arts and the preservation for the benefit of the public of buildings and items of historical interest or national importance. The upcoming deadlines are 11 February 2016 (Trustees' meeting May 2016) and 8 September 2016 (Trustees' meeting November 2016). More details from: <http://goo.gl/JW3hD>

Imagine Foundation

IF is a grant-making foundation which aims to support charities and projects that are particularly focused on building communities and empowering participants to reach their potential. Because of the relational approach that the Trust takes in building its partnerships, it actively seeks projects to support, using their network of contacts. However, if a project is a strong fit with the Trust's primary objectives then uninvited applications will be considered. No minimum or maximum level of grant is specified and this is a rolling grants programme. More details from: <http://digbig.com/5bkder>

Inland Waterways Association

IWA makes grants from its Restoration Grants Fund to organisations promoting the restoration of navigable or formerly navigable inland waterways in England and Wales. Applications from bodies promoting new navigable waterway routes will also be considered. Grants of up to £3,000 are usually the norm, although grants of up to £15,000 are available and even larger grants may be made by the IWA in exceptional cases. IWA does not normally award grants of 100% of the project cost or provide retrospective grants. Apply using the downloadable form and submit electronically. More details from: <https://goo.gl/1DRPVy>

The JJ Charitable Trust

The JJ Charitable Trust Grant is provided and administered by the Sainsbury Family Charitable Trusts and is available for voluntary and community organisations active in the UK. The scheme is intended to support projects to improve literacy and the environment, both in the UK and abroad. In particular, the scheme wishes to support projects with the following themes: Social and cultural change towards more sustainable lifestyles – creative approaches that visualise a sustainable future in positive ways; Innovative enterprise and economic models that support sustainable lifestyles and the role of the media in communicating about sustainability; Environment projects overseas, especially community-based agriculture initiatives, which aim to help people help themselves in an environmentally sustainable way. More details from: <http://digbig.com/5bckye>

Jephcott Charitable Trust

The Trust awards grants to registered charities and constituted groups in the UK. Grants are available to help set up organisations or make a significant step forward for projects that will make a difference under one of the Trust's four main priorities, which include the environment. Grants of between £2,000 and £10,000 are available and in exceptional cases, up to £20,000, towards project costs. This is a rolling programme and so applications can be made at any time. ### John Ellerman Foundation

The Foundation awards grants in three categories - Arts, Environment and Welfare. Environmental grants will cover 25% of costs. The Foundation's aim is to contribute to greater harmony between people and the planet. Environmental priorities include managing habitats and protecting the seas. The Trust will also consider applications for work in the UK Overseas Territories. The application process is in two stages: stage one requires a brief description of your organisation, financial summary and funding needs, if you are invited to stage two a full application will be requested. More details from: <http://goo.gl/dRLJhX>

Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust

The Trust is deeply concerned about climate change and its effects, and believes that addressing this issue will require long-term political, economic and social change. Within this area of interest, the Trust makes grants to a range of organisations and to individuals. The overall focus is on developing and promoting sustainable, low-carbon alternatives through support for projects that; explore 'better economics', address 'consumerism' and support marginalised groups and young activists to have a 'voice'. JRCT usually makes around 100-120 grants per year, with a total value of around £6m, giving a nominal average grant of £50,000. The Trust only accepts applications submitted online and the next deadlines are:

21 March 2016 (Decision 11 July 2016)

The Lush Charity Pot

The Lush Charity Pot is funded by the ethical cosmetics manufacturer Lush. 100% of the purchase price of a specially created product (less taxes) goes towards supporting humanitarian, environmental and animal rights causes in the UK and around the world. During the last financial year in the UK, over £898,000 was donated to small charities, campaigns and organisations working in the areas of environment, animal protection and human rights. The majority of funding is allocated to small, grassroots groups that are often best placed to make a real difference with limited resources and often struggle to find funding. Support ranges from a few hundred pounds to a maximum of £10,000 per project. The average grant is around £4,000. More details from: <https://goo.gl/AW4zEp>

The Mercers' Charitable Foundation

The Charity's principal object is to make grants and donations for the benefit of a wide range of charitable purposes including welfare, education, the arts, heritage and religion.

Wildlife/environment conservation falls under the heritage category and so applications will be considered for the protection and research of: UK endangered species; Flora and fauna and their habitat; Historic gardens and open spaces; and Marine conservation. Applications within the Heritage category are considered from all parts of the UK. More details from: <http://goo.gl/L2FZBy>

Millennium Stadium Charitable Trust

The Trust encourages applications relating to recycling, developing green spaces, the development and promotion of green practices and the promotion of public transport schemes. The Trust issues funding related to the size of geographical area that an organisation has a remit to cover; local up to £2,500 (deadline this year 12 December 2015 with Trustees decision by 10 March 2016) and regional up to £7,500. More details from: <http://goo.gl/bW1h87>

National Marine Aquarium

Funding is provided by National Aquarium Limited which is the grant-giving arm of the National Marine Aquarium. The aim of this scheme is to support research, education and conservation projects which link people with the marine environment. Grants awarded so far have been in the region of £1,200 to £5,000 and it is likely that future awards will be for similar amounts.

Conservation charities, community groups, schools, colleges and individuals are eligible to apply and there is no geographical restriction on where projects might be located, or where applications might come from. Consideration will be given to projects operating at every scale but priority will be given to local and national initiatives. Projects which target disadvantaged groups are encouraged and projects which demonstrate a novel approach are more likely to attract support. Application deadlines for this year: 27 April 2016 - Trustees decision 18 May 2016 and 28 September 2016 - Trustees decision 19 October 2016. More details from: <http://goo.gl/FSXoEb>

Horizon 2020

Horizon 2020 is the EU's new programme for research and innovation and will run from 2014-2020. There are various single-stage and 2-stage calls currently open.

Greening the Economy

This Call has an overall objective of taking a systemic approach to moving towards a more resource efficient, greener and more competitive economy, and addresses the priority areas of climate services, moving towards a low-carbon Europe, nature-based solutions for territorial resilience, water, raw materials, Earth observation and cultural heritage for sustainable growth. 18 calls are now open with a deadline of 8 March on areas including climate services market research; Pathways to decarbonisation; and Operationalising insurance values of ecosystems. More details from: <http://goo.gl/2QBtyH>

Smart and Sustainable Cities Call

The 2016-2017 comprises two distinct but mutually reinforcing parts.

Smart Cities and Communities focuses on demonstrating sustainable, cost-effective and replicable district-scale solutions at the intersection of energy and transport enabled by ICT.

Solutions should integrate smart homes, energy efficiency measures, very high shares of renewables, smart grids, energy storage, electric vehicles and smart charging infrastructures, using latest generation ICT platforms. This topic will open on 8 December 2015 with a budget of €60 million. The deadline is 5 April 2016.

Sustainable cities through Nature-based Solutions focuses on providing evidence that re-naturing of cities through the deployment of innovative, locally adapted, systemic solutions - that are inspired and supported by nature - can be a cost-effective and economically viable way to make cities more sustainable, resilient, greener, and healthier. This will also help to increase their attractiveness for citizens, new economic activities and investments. Three topics are open under this Call with a budget of €60 million and deadline of 8 March 2016. More details from: <http://goo.gl/oFB5kd>

Landfill Communities Funds

The Landfill Communities Fund (LCF) – formerly the Landfill Tax Credit Scheme is an innovative scheme that enables operators of landfill sites to contribute money to enrolled Environmental Bodies (EBs) to carry out projects that meet the objects contained in the Landfill Tax Regulations 1996. ENTRUST regulates the LCF on behalf of HM Revenue & Customs. Organisations wishing to apply for funding through the scheme should approach a LCF funder, details of which can be found on the ENTRUST website: www.entrust.org.uk. There are six main areas of work that can be undertaken when utilising LCF monies, these are called the 'objects'. The relevant objects are as follows:

- The remediation or restoration of land which cannot now be used because of a ceased activity that used to take place there.
- The reduction, prevention or mitigation of effects of pollution that has resulted, or may result, from an activity which has now ceased.
- The provision, maintenance or improvement of a public park or other general public amenity.
- The conservation of a specific species or a specific habitat where it naturally occurs.
- The repair, maintenance or restoration of a place of worship or a place of architectural importance.
- Administrative services to another enrolled EB.

Funding can range from £500 - £500,000. Responsibility for the new Welsh Landfill Tax will be transferred to the Government on 1 April 2018. This impacts on the LCF in Wales which will also cease after 31 March 2018. For more information about the LCF in Wales and any announcements about the successor to the LCF in Wales please visit the ENTRUST website. The following funds provide money through the LCF.

European Funding

EU investment of nearly £2 billion is available to Wales for 2014-2020 through European Structural Funds investment for the following regional programmes: West Wales and the Valleys - covers 15 local authority areas in North and West Wales and the Valleys East Wales - covers 7 local authority areas in East Wales Both programmes include the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) and European Social Fund (ESF). ERDF funds help support research and innovation, the competitiveness of small and medium-sized enterprises, renewable energy and energy efficiency, and connectivity and urban development. The ESF funds are helping to tackle poverty through sustainable employment, increasing skills and youth employment. Potential sponsors are encouraged to discuss their project proposals as soon as possible with WEFO. Further details and an online enquiry form are available at <http://goo.gl/UzoYY>

Federation of City Farms and Community Gardens

The FCFCG provides support to anyone who gets together with others in their neighbourhood to create and nurture a green space for the benefit of their community. There is a wide range of online information and advice useful for Welsh community growers at <https://goo.gl/Ni3VsE>. The FCFCG also manages the Community Land Advisory Service in Wales (CLAS Cymru)

<http://goo.gl/pW2CIf> which aims to help community growing groups, landowners - plus others involved in land access - to work together to make more land available for community growing.

Growing Together, a project designed to help community growing projects become more financially sustainable. More details from: <https://goo.gl/jyEipc>

HIPPOWASTE Grants up for Grabs

The 'Grants up for Grabs' scheme awards free waste disposal help to applications from charities, community groups and organisations from across the UK that inspire respect for the environment or have a positive effect on the community. More details from:

Resource Efficient Wales

Resource Efficient Wales is the Welsh Government's single point of access to provide community groups, charities, householders, businesses or public bodies with information across a range of resource efficiency topics. A bilingual helpline provides tailored information on saving energy and water, and reducing waste or disposing of it more efficiently. Calls are charged at local rate, even from a mobile phone and you may request a call-back which will be done within 2 working days. The helpline 0300 123 2020 is open 9am – 5pm. More details including on other Welsh Government resource efficiency programmes from <http://goo.gl/qGDnmL>

Tidy Towns

Tidy Towns is a Welsh Government funded community initiative, designed to help volunteer groups take charge of their local environment. It supports communities to make local areas a better, cleaner place to live e.g. by turning waste ground into a shared community space; creating and managing pollinator rich habitats, controlling invasive species, growing projects; or improving access to local facilities by restoring pathways. There is a Keep Wales Tidy project officer working in each local authority to help groups with starting up and building skills and capacity. The officers also help projects liaise with the local authority, as well as the police and environmental agencies. More details from: <http://goo.gl/5Dq9xF>

Wales Council for Voluntary Action

Wales Council for Voluntary Action (WCVA) operates the Third Sector Funding Portal, a 'one-stop shop' for funding advice and opportunities. The portal features GRANTnet, <http://goo.gl/KfTffo> a free basic online funding search that can help identify suitable funding opportunities for your activity or project. For heritage organisations there is also a programme of specialist fundraising support called Catalyst Cymru. More details from <http://goo.gl/1BpSZo>
